Mall of Georgia ushers in the busy shopping season with holiday pop-up stores

Hickory Farms, Go! Calendars, See's Candies, Ornament Workshop and Polar X Ornaments now open at Gwinnett County's premier shopping center

Buford, Ga. (November 21, 2018) – Mall of Georgia is decking the halls with the openings of favored seasonal pop-ups for the holidays! Hickory Farms, Go! Calendars, See's Candies, Ornament Workshop and Polar X Ornaments are all now open, offering a variety of gift options for shoppers at the largest shopping center in the Southeast.

"During the holidays, we work to help our guests find the perfect presents for everyone on their list," said Teresa Holloway, director of marketing and business development for Mall of Georgia. "With these pop-up stores, we hope to provide guests with an expanded variety of gift options they need to make the season a success!"

Hickory Farms returns for another holiday season with hand-crafted gifts, including sausage, cheese and other specialty foods. The specialty cart is now open on the lower level near Palmetto Moon.

Offering a variety of gift options including calendars, toys, games and more, Go! Calendars is now open on the lower level across from Dick's Sporting Goods.

Fan-favorite and American-made candy shop See's Candies offers specialty high-quality chocolates made from fresh ingredients. Holiday shoppers can find the See's Candies kiosk on the lower level near JCPenney.

Located on the upper level near Apple, shoppers can discover thoughtful gifts at Ornament Workshop. The festive new store specializes in home décor and personalized ornaments.

Guests can now find an array of original holiday décor, including personalized ornaments, at Polar X. The holiday gift shop is open on the lower level near Macy's and the lower level near Belk.
