

dormakaba completes its acquisition of Mesker Openings Group

Rümlang, 13th December 2016 – dormakaba has satisfied the conditions necessary in order to complete the acquisition of Mesker Openings Group, and has closed the transaction effective 12th December 2016. The transaction, which was announced on 8th November 2016, marks the expansion of dormakaba's product portfolio in North America. Doors and all related components essential for access and security solutions for buildings and rooms can be provided from a single source. dormakaba will also be able to expand its distribution network and take advantage of additional sales channels as a result of this acquisition.
