

Monarch Casino Black Hawk unveils sneak peak of new hotel interiors

Local media gets behind-the-scenes update of the new hotel, spa, and restaurants

Monday, June 5, 2017 — Denver media executives will get a sneak peek at the exciting new designs for Monarch Casino Black Hawk today. Monarch Casino Black Hawk marketing director Erica Ferris, and her colleague, Tracie Barnthouse, communications manager from Reno sister property Atlantis Casino Resort Spa met with media leaders to give them a construction update. From the beautiful steakhouse restaurant, to the rooftop pool, to the retail space, this resort is sure to rival any major US casino property.

The new construction will include a 23-story hotel tower with approximately 500 guest rooms and suites, an upscale spa and pool facility, a total of four restaurants and several new bars. The new facilities will open in phases.

Monarch Casino Black Hawk has excellent job opportunities to get in on the ground floor, with more than 1,000 openings in spa, food and valet services during the next two years. In addition, the resort will also be hiring professionals in finance, engineering, and management. Job seekers are encouraged to apply now for current openings. The company offers competitive, comprehensive benefits packages and is just a 45-minute drive from downtown Denver. Visit Monarch Casino's career page to view job openings, benefits and application procedures.

The casino has also undergone a recent renovation, including construction of a nine-story parking structure with state-of-the-art lighting. When coupled with valet parking spaces, the property has room for more than 1,500 vehicles.

ABOUT MONARCH CASINO BLACK HAWK

Monarch Casino & Resort, Inc. acquired the Monarch Casino Black Hawk, the first casino encountered by visitors arriving from Denver on Highway 119, in April 2012. The property features approximately 32,000 square feet of casino space, approximately 700 slot machines, 14 table games, a 250 seat buffet-style restaurant, a snack bar and a parking structure with approximately 1,350 spaces. Once completed, the Monarch Casino Black Hawk expansion will nearly double the casino space and will add a 23 story hotel tower with approximately 500 guest rooms and suites, an upscale spa and pool facility, three restaurants (bringing the total to four restaurants), additional bars, a new parking structure and associated support facilities.
