

RELEASED: 21st December 2017

Brand-new THE LEAGUE OF GENTLEMEN to screen on ABC COMEDY

Screening ABC COMEDY and iview from Tuesday 16th January at 22.00

Much-loved comedy The League of Gentlemen returns with three brand-new episodes to celebrate the group's twentieth anniversary at the BBC.

Get ready to go back to Royston Vasey!!

Once again, the three performing members of the League - Reece Shearsmith, Steve Pemberton and Mark Gatiss - will be playing a veritable host of bizarre and darkly comic characters inhabiting the fictional Northern town of Royston Vasey, in scripts written by themselves and co-creator Jeremy Dyson.

Royston Vasey is facing a threat more dire than anything it has faced before: dark rumours of boundary changes that could erase the town from the map forever. The fight to save Royston Vasey from administrative annihilation will come from unexpected and surprising directions, all of them local...

The League of Gentlemen's original radio series, On The Town With The League Of Gentlemen, won a silver Sony award 20 years ago this year. The first series of the ground-breaking TV series won a BAFTA award, a Royal Television Society Award, and the prestigious Rose D'Or in Montreux.

The League of Gentlemen is a BBC Studios Production for BBC Two.

For further information please contact:

Peri Wilson, Acting Publicity Lead

wilson.peri@abc.net.au | 02 8333 2263 | 0409 888 866