News July 2024

We want to show that it's perfectly possible to refresh your home at a low cost. Small changes can certainly make a big difference. The only thing that matters is that it fits your home and your budget. A new cushion cover might be all you need. We like that.

Vitamin pills. For your home.

"IKEA PS 1995 clock has a shape that looks like an old Swedish Mora clock from the province of Dalarna or a guitar. I like the combination of convex and concave lines. The biggest challenge was in creating a soft curvy body that still had a clear, graphic shape. The final result is like an icon for clocks, which also works as a practical storage place for small things. It's very recognisable. I hope you find the clock both fun and useful."

Designer Thomas Eriksson

Could PLATTLUMMER cushion cover be a future IKEA classic? Maybe. It's fun, colourful and the price tag is almost as hypnotising as the design. Time will tell.

GRÖNFINK is like a magical dream captured in textile. You don't even have to close your eyes to start dreaming.

It's almost impossible to look at the new green GULLIVER without a silly smile on your face. We shouldn't be bragging like this, but isn't it just adorable?

That yellow KNARREVIK table sure looks nice together with the new SYRABLADMAL bedlinen and the dotted RUNDKRASSIG cushion cover. Simple and low-key but quite striking together.

We think it's perfect because it's imperfect. The irregular, hand drawn lines on SYRABLADMAL create a vibrant and young feeling. It's fresh and unexpected married together.

“The pattern for VILDPERSILJA curtains and cushion covers is one that had been simmering in my mind for a while. It’s inspired by the old houses that line the streets of Visby, Gotland where I live, with charming walled gardens full of roses, fruit trees, hollyhocks, ivy, daisies, marigolds, figs and walnut trees. Whether you are looking to add life and a splash of colour to a neutral-toned space or to make your urban flat cosier – this versatile pattern connects you to nature.”
