Contest 2021

The period of our history known as the War of Independence begins at dawn on September 16th 1810, when Father Miguel Hidalgo pronounced the "Grito de Dolores" and ends on September 27, 1821 with the triumphant entry of the Trigarante Army, headed by Agustín de Iturbide and Vicente Guerrero, into Mexico City.

For this reason, every year on the 16th of September the Independence of Mexico is commemorated with festivities and gatherings in Mexico and around the world. In these events we celebrate Mexican culture, the gastronomy of each state, regional Mexican music and typical costumes are worn. For this reason, the Institute for Mexicans Abroad has selected for the XXV Children's Drawing Contest "This is my Mexico" the following theme:

"The Independence of Mexico"

Girls and boys from all over the world are invited to participate in the XXV Children's Drawing Contest "This is my Mexico", through which they can demonstrate their artistic skills and imagination by drawing or painting aspects, moments, individuals and historical scenes of Mexico's Independence.
