

PRESS RELEASE*Jebsen & Jessen Technology in Indonesia Sees Growth in its Dry Bulk Handling Division

New Partnership Agreements Will Expand Jebsen & Jessen's Product Offerings and Solutions

Singapore, October 8 2019 - Diversified industrial group, Jebsen & Jessen, is expanding its product offerings and solutions of its Technology business unit's Dry Bulk Handling division in Indonesia through new partnership agreements with Striker Crushing & Screening, Shaorui Heavy Industries (SRH-Metso), and Hoverdale UK. The companies formalised the new partnerships at a signing ceremony on 19 September at Mining Indonesia 2019 held at the Jakarta International Expo.

Since its launch in 2017, Jebsen & Jessen Technology Indonesia's Dry Bulk Handling division has seen growth in its business and successfully handled projects in the mining sector, particularly in coal handling, crushing & screening, and nickel mining. The company is currently also involved in a project for a dry nickel processing plant in Sulawesi.

Committed to innovating and expanding its range of products by working with leading brands around the world, Jebsen & Jessen offers its customers a variety of new and used stock equipment including mobile and fixed crushers, mobile screens, telescopic conveyors and a large quantity of spare & wear parts. The new partnership agreements will see expanded product offerings and solutions to crushing and screening, by Striker Crushing & Screening and SRH-Metso, and conveying and feeding, by Hoverdale UK. These brands will expand existing product portfolio which includes trommel screens from MDS International, telescopic conveyors from Thor Global, ship loading & coal handling technologies from Bedeschi S.p.A and belt scanning technologies from H-Sensortechnik.
