Throughout June, special offers are in place for EW-D wireless systems at participating dealers

“Evolution Wireless Digital EW-D has become the go-to series for those who demand professional sound and performance without the complexity,” explains Jimmy R. Landry, Category Market Manager MI at Sennheiser. “To celebrate that success and Sennheiser’s 80th anniversary, we are excited to release 80 pairs of limited-edition HD 25 headphones. For a chance to win, all you have to do is share your experience with Sennheiser professional wireless products, no purchase necessary. It’s our way of saying thank you and celebrating eight decades of innovation in sound.”

Five stars for a reason

The Evolution Wireless Digital EW-D series was designed to make wireless as easy as using an app — and has garnered 5-star reviews about its pristine audio quality, rock-solid reliability, and the worry-free Smart Assist app, which takes over the tedious job of setting up the wireless for a gig, and helps in monitoring and troubleshooting.

The Smart Assist app makes setting up a wireless system a breeze

Just like evolution wireless G4, Evolution Wireless Digital features a professional UHF connection between tour-proof transmitters and receivers, but it takes users from the analogue to the digital world. Digital wireless offers some sonic advantages over analogue, there is no RF noise floor, and the audio is crisp and clear. The latency of EW-D systems is at just 1.9 ms, which makes the sound feel natural and immediate, and thanks to the ultra-wide dynamic range of 134 dB on the transmitter, the EW-D wireless mic will handle very quiet and extremely loud sources effortlessly.
