PRÊT-À-PORTER SPRING/SUMMER 2027

The upcoming summer marks a defining season for Maison NATAN - a moment dedicated to thoughtfully crafting silhouettes for grand celebrations, weddings, and milestones, yet designed to transition effortlessly into everyday living. NATAN curates an elevated collection where natural, luxurious fabrics meet sheer lightness and ease. From luminous silks and bold, vibrant satins for airy tops to pastel gossamer embroidered with crystal beads in nude hues, elegance is explored in all its nuances.

Fluid tunics, tailored bustiers paired with fuller volumes on the bottom, or supple trousers coordinated with tops showcasing gentle curves; draping and bare shoulders alongside blouses adorned with Twilly-scarf accents for an evanescent touch: the new summer season promises to be playful, sophisticated, and effortlessly relaxed.

Edouard Vermeulen chose to contrast a palette of ultra-pale pink pastels with vibrant orange, an intense deep-sea aquazuro turquoise, buttercup yellow, rich burgundy, and a symphony of greens - his signature color - interwoven with black, white, and sky blue. This season's prints draw inspiration from an «antique document» aesthetic, akin to a delicate veil cast over an image to softly blur it.

For daytime, the collection seamlessly blends with spring in soft cotton voile reminiscent of stylized pareos; long, flowing gowns transition gracefully from formal ceremonies to every summer occasion. Maison NATAN moves in step with the way we adopt and adapt our wardrobes, offering thoughtful love-at-first-sight pieces that transition effortlessly from open-air gatherings to city moments, from professional settings to the comfort of home. As seasons stretch and opposites attract, NATAN reinvents its collections in tune with an evolving world - with coherence, vision, and elegance.
