

FOX Networks Group Asia Appoints New HR Leader, Angela Ryan

Angela Ryan joins the team from 11 June, supporting FNGA's bold ambitions in the region

20 June 2018, Hong Kong – FOX Networks Group Asia (FNGA) today announces the appointment of Angela Ryan as its Head of Human Resources.

Angela joins FNGA from GroupM where she was Chief Human Resources Officer, Asia Pacific, leading a team of HR and talent professionals across the full spectrum of HR functions including digital transformation. With over two decades in the field, her hands-on human resource expertise spans UK, Europe, China, Latin America and Asia Pacific.

As the Head of HR for FOX Networks Group Asia, Angela oversees talent management, development and recruitment; supporting the Group's ambitions to scale, innovate and embrace the future as Asia Pacific's leading entertainment provider.

"We are gearing up for the future by increasing our investments in original content production, digital technology, and above all – human capital," said Zubin Gandevia, President of Fox Networks Group Asia. "It's clichéd but true; we are nothing without our team, and Angela with her experience in digital transformation will work with my leadership team and myself to be a guiding force and help us further strengthen our people, nurturing the FOX culture of playing, winning and having fun together."

Angela added, "FNGA is dedicated to igniting imaginations across the region. With the right people on board, the business can continue to bring these awe-inspiring stories to life and deliver them to consumers. I'm thrilled to support FNGA in continuing its ambitious course toward strong talent management and bold human capital strategies, in order to protect its success and propel innovation."

Angela holds a Master's Degree from the University of West England and a Doctoral Candidate in Applied Neuroscience of Transformation from Middlesex University.

After 11 years with Fox Networks Group Asia, Linda Hui, SVP, Human Resources, will be leaving the company. Zubin added, "Linda has been one of the core members of our family, we will always be grateful for her unwavering dedication. We wish Linda the very best for her future pursuits."
