ESTÉE LAUDER INTRODUCES RE-NUTRIV ULTIMATE FACIAL MASSAGER

Available as from May 2020

A custom, diamond-faceted massager inspired by the latest trends in luxury facial treatments

Estée Lauder Re-Nutriv skincare combines the world's most precious ingredients with powerful youth-sustaining technology for a life of extraordinary beauty.

Now, inspired by the latest trends in luxury facial treatments, Re-Nutriv introduces the Ultimate Facial Massager to help stimulate microcirculation and visibly re-energize skin. Designed for Re-Nutriv and crafted from a cooling golden alloy, this diamond-faceted massage roller transforms the everyday ritual of skincare application into an extraordinary moment of indulgence and self-care.

The precisely angled massager caresses the contours of the face with the expert-developed massage technique. Every aspect of the sculptural design, luxurious weight and ergonomic shape has been carefully considered, creating an ultimate experience that massages facial muscles and visibly re-energizes skin. Micro-circulation is instantly stimulated, reawakening skin's youthful, healthy-looking natural blush. Re-Nutriv serum or creme is infused into skin with every cool touch.
