Conquer the World on Android: Tribal Wars 2 launches New App

InnoGames releases a cross-platform-functional version for Android tablets and smartphones

Hamburg, November 27, 2014. Today, online games developer InnoGames launched the android-version of its cross-platform strategy game Tribal Wars 2. The app can be downloaded for free via the Google Play store and supports over 5000 devices, including new phones and tablets, such as the Samsung Galaxy S5, the HTC One and the Sony Xperia devices. The development team introduces the app in a new video. Tribal Wars 2 is fully cross-platform-functional, which allows users to seamlessly switch between the android and browser-version and never lose progress. The iOS-app, sporting the same cross-platform functionality, will also be released soon. The game follows its legendary browser predecessor Tribal Wars, which has 55 million registered players worldwide.

Tribal Wars 2 has already successfully started its browser beta with over a million registered players in 6 weeks. With the release of their android version and the upcoming app for iPads and iPhones, InnoGames expects the number of registrations to grow. The game has been optimized to be played on smartphones as well as on small and large tablets.

In Tribal Wars 2, players find themselves as the leader of a small village in the midst of a medieval world. Tasked with growing and expanding their empire within a war-torn landscape, they have to fight in order to survive. The MMO's focus is real-time, strategic battles with and against other players. The game is designed as a cross-platform game for browser and mobile to enable players to use the same account for web, iOS and android while still experiencing the same game world, with the same rivals and allies.

With about 130 million registered players, InnoGames is one of the world's leading developers and providers of online games. Currently, the Hamburg-based company employs 350 professionals from 25 nations. InnoGames has scored major success with games such as Tribal Wars, Grepolis and Forge of Empires.
