

McClugage Bridge closures during demolition

To safely remove the old eastbound McClugage Bridge, a series of carefully coordinated events using explosives will occur. Each event will prompt full bridge closures of both eastbound and westbound spans. Exact event dates will be announced via press releases, the project website and social media. (Dates are subject to change due to weather conditions.) These road and ramp closures marked in yellow on the maps below will occur during each demolition event.

