

DRUNK ELEPHANT

PROTINI POLYPEPTIDE CREAM

YOUR DAILY PROTEIN FIX.

"Every day, I add protein powder to my smoothie for muscle support. I wanted a different kind of moisturizer that would do the same for my skin. Protini was born."

—Tiffany Masterson

A shot of firming, strengthening moisture that works to nourish your skin and reduce visible signs of aging. Protini Polypeptide Cream is your daily, high-performance moisturizer—powered by peptides and backed by science. Formulated to feed your skin everything it needs, nothing it doesn't.

INGREDIENT SPOTLIGHT

9 signal peptides

Bind moisture to the skin while supporting healthy collagen production and reducing visible signs of aging.

Pygmy waterlily extract

Known for its antioxidant properties, that can help mitigate environmental damage that leads to signs of aging.

SUGGESTED USE

Apply one pump morning and night to clean, dry skin.

THE DRUNK ELEPHANT DIFFERENCE

Drunk Elephant believes performance and personality can live in the same jar. We believe in skin-first formulas that are developed with effective levels of active ingredients that can be easily absorbed and put to use.

RESPONSIBLE MOISTURIZING YIELDS REAL RESULTS:

96%

showed improvement in tone, radiance, and luminosity*

93%

showed improvement in texture*

90%
